FROM THOMAS EDEN CO.

LONDON 31 MAY 1774 —

SIR —

Being without any of your favours since our last respects per Capt Boucher we have chiefly to hand you Account sales of the 4 hhds Tobo you favour'd us with per the Sim Nett proceeds to [mutilated] £14.17.2 which considering the quality situation of our Markets, was the most we could obtain for them—Our prices are a little mended now particularly—real good Tobo sells very well —

We remain very Respectfully Sir Yr mo. huml. Servt: THOSS. EDEN CO
